Torrance Joins Centinela Val. Baseball League

Opening Game of Eight-Club Circuit Will be Played Sunday May 1

The Torrance Merchants made it three in a row by defeating the Torrance Bears by a score of 7 to 5 Sunday, game played on the Bears field at the Pueblo.

"Dutch" Richhart was on the mound for the Merchants and while he was touched for eight hits, he kept them well scattered. The Merchants, which were organized only a short time ago under the management of J. W. Young, have joined the Centinela Valley League, and will play their first game in the circuit next Sunday at El Segundo. Other teams in the league are Gardena, Culver City, Hoover Cubs, Manchester Tigers, Lennox Merchants and Hawthorne All-Stars.

At a meeting of the league held Friday evening, April 22, the following officials were elected: A. L. Martin of Southwest Los Angeles, president; Jess Young of Torrance, vice president; P. Gartland of El Segundo, secretary.

Following is the box score of Sunday's game:

PAGEANT LUMINARIES

Chevalier's New Picture Comes to Torrance Sunday

"One Hour With You," A Marital Comedy of Errors With a Happy Ending

And now "The Smiling Lieutenant" becomes a doctor—a specialist who gives all his feminine patients heart-trouble!

Adoring women beg for his professional attention—and other attentions also.

Their temperatures go up when he feels their pulse—and his boudoir manner is wonderful.

Inimitable, incomparable, irresistible Maurice Chevalier. The joy-maker supreme, prescribes love and laughter for all your troubles in his newest, snappiest, funniest Paramount Picture—"One Hour With You," which will be shown at the Torrance Theatre three days beginning Sunday, May 1.

And out in front is the merry and melodious Maurice handing out love and laughter tinged with "Lubitsch touches." It's a tuneful, mirthful comedy of rellicking love, with the sparkle that makes the Chevalier-Lubitsch combination the most entertaining in the show business.

With Chevalier in this new offering are Jeanette MacDonald, as his fascinating young wife, Jeanette has a friend, Genevieve Tobin, who meets, accidentally Maurice in a taxi cab, learns he is a doctor and decides to fall ill. She phones for his services and the plot begins to thicken. Roland Young plays the husband, seeking a divorce, of Genevieve, Josephine Dunn, appears on the scene to further complicate affairs, and Charlie Ruggles, hopelessly enamored of Jeanette, supplies the comedy relief.

Numerous song hits, cleverly interwoven with the plot, are sung by Chevalier, Miss MacDonald and others in the cast.

The picture is a medley of music, clever acting, romance and marital mixups, with a happy ending.

STOP USING SODA! CAUSE OF STOMACH GAS
Much soda disturbs digestion. For sour stomach and gas, Adierka is far better. One dose will rid you of bowel poisons which cause gas and bad sleep. Dooley Drug Company.—Adv.

Week of Hits, Ultimate in Entertainment, Offered at This Theater

That the ultimate in entertainment is offered at the Fox Redondo Theatre is signalled by the list of showings to be presented the coming week.

Joe Brown in "Fireman Save My Child" is to be shown for one day only, on Saturday. That this is a comedy riot goes without saying. Theatre patrons will more than "overhaul the giggle apparatus" at the antics of this famous comedian. "Fireman Save My Child" is the film fare of a big combination stage and screen show. On the stage will be the Club Paradise orchestra and revue.

Saturday matinee offers a big treat for the kiddies, sponsored by the Wonder Bakery Company. Every child attending the matinee will receive a free cake.

Starting a three-day "Greta Movie Season" next Sunday will be "Mati Hari" with the exotic Greta Garbo with Ramon Navarro and Lionel Barrymore together in one of the most colorful tales to emanate from the World War.

Next Wednesday and Thursday brings the screen's newest romantic team to the Fox Redondo. "Spencer Tracy, always good for laughs and excellent performances, will appear in "Disorderly Conduct" with Sally Eilers. That this picture will not lack in comedy sequences is made positively sure by the adding of El Brendel to the cast.

TWICE WORLD CHAMP

There's no stopping that Ben Eastman, Stanford's bespectacled streak of lightning. Not content with setting a new world record of 46.4 seconds in the 440-yard dash a few weeks ago, Ben went out in a tri-cornered meet and hung up a mark of 1:51.3 for the 890-yard run, beating Dr. Otto Peltzer's former world record of 1:51.6. Here's Ben in top stride.
